United States Attorney Deborah R. Gilg and the Lincoln Police Department announce the following information for the attention of the media:

Event Triggering this Release:

Today, Derrick Gartner, age 29 of Lincoln, was sentenced by Senior United States District Court Judge Lyle E. Strom to a 168 month prison term following Gartner's conviction for receipt of child pornography. In addition to the prison term, Gartner was ordered to serve 10 years of supervised release, and pay a $100 special assessment. Gartner's computer equipment was also ordered forfeited to the United States.

Gartner came to the attention of the Lincoln Police Department after child pornography was viewed on a computer owned by Gartner. Forensic analysis determined that numerous images and videos of child pornography were found on Gartner's computers.
